

Please do not approve more intensification,consolidation of an already monopolized electronic and print media. As citizens of a democracy, we need more diversity of viewpoints, not homogenized, manufactured news out of corporate offices thousand miles away